The Commemoration Of the Lord's Entry into Jerusalem
Choir

Hosanna to the Son of David, the King of Israel
Blessed is He who comes in the Name of the Lord
Hosanna in the Highest

Priest: +In the Name of the Father.....The Lord be with you.
and also with you

Introduction (or similar words)

Priest: Dear friends in Christ, during Lent we have been preparing by works of love and self-sacrifice for the celebration of our Lord's death and resurrection. Today we come together to begin this solemn celebration in union with the Church throughout the world. Christ enters his own city to complete his work as our Saviour, to suffer, to die and to rise again. Let us go with him in faith and love, so that united with him in his sufferings, we may share his risen life.

The people hold up their palms while this prayer is said

Priest: God our Saviour, whose Son Jesus Christ entered Jerusalem as Messiah to suffer and to die, let these palms be for us signs of his victory; and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King and follow- him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen. (Holy Water then sprinkled, and Palms/people Incensed).

The Gospel account of the Entry into Jerusalem

Priest: Let us go forth in peace, praising Jesus our Messiah as did the crowds who welcomed Him to Jerusalem.

Procession Servers, Choir, Clergy, Celebrant, followed by the congregation process into the Church, holding the palm crosses.

Processional Hymns: 11 All glory, laud and honour.
435 Ride on, ride on in majesty

There is no penitential rite and after the Altar has been censed, the priest begins the Collect

Collect for the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading - Isaiah 50:4-9a

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

Psalm 31:10-18

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble : and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness; yea, my soul and my body.

For my life is waxen old with heaviness : and my years with mourning.

My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquity : and my bones are consumed.

I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours : and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me; and they that did see me without conveyed themselves from me.

I am clean forgotten, as a dead man out of mind : I am become like a broken vessel.

For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude : and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against me, and take their counsel to take away my life.

But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord : I have said, Thou art my God.

My time is in thy hand; deliver me from the hand of mine enemies : and from them that persecute me.

Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercy's sake.

Second Reading - Philippians 2:5-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Christ was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all names

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Passion Gospel - Luke 22:14 - 23:56

Offertory Hymn 346 My song is love unknown

Prayer over the gifts

Through the Passion of your Only Begotten Son, O Lord, may our reconciliation with you be near at hand, so that, though we do not merit it by our own deeds, yet by this sacrifice made once for all, we may feel already the effects of your mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Sacred head, sore wounded (NOT Hymn 499 There is a green hill as p11 Booklet)

1 O SACRED head, sore wounded,
Defiled and put to scorn;
O kingly head, surrounded
With mocking crown of thorn:
What sorrow mars thy grandeur?
Can death thy bloom deflower?
O countenance whose splendour
The hosts of heaven adore.

2 Thy beauty, long-desired,
Hath vanished from our sight;
Thy power is all expired,
And quenched the light of light.
Ah me! for whom thou diest,
Hide not so far thy grace:
Show me, O Love most highest,
The brightness of thy face.

3 I pray thee, Jesus, own me,
Me, Shepherd good, for thine;
Who to thy fold hast won me,
And fed with truth divine.
Me guilty, me refuse not,
Incline thy face to me,
This comfort that I lose not,
On earth to comfort thee.

4 In thy most bitter passion
My heart to share doth cry,
With thee for my salvation
Upon the Cross to die.
Ah, keep my heart thus moved
To stand thy Cross beneath,
To mourn thee, well-beloved,
Yet thank thee for thy death.
